

LIEUTENANT GENERAL PAUL E. MENOHER, JR.
US Army, Retired

LTG Menoher was commissioned through the Reserve Officer Training Corps (ROTC) at the University of California, from which he received a Bachelor of Arts degree in International Relations. He also received a Master's Degree in International Relations from George Washington University.

LTG Menoher held a variety of command and staff positions including key assignments as Chief, Collection Division, Office of the Deputy Chief of Staff for Intelligence, United States Army Europe and Seventh Army; Assistant Chief of Staff, G2 (Intelligence) VII Corps also in the European theater; and Commander, 501st Military Intelligence Brigade, US Forces Korea, after which he was selected for promotion to Brigadier General.

His assignments as a general officer included Director of the Army Intelligence Electronic Warfare Master Plan; Commanding General, US Army Intelligence Agency; Commanding General, US Army Intelligence Center and School, Fort Huachuca; Commanding General, US Army Intelligence and Security Command, and culminating with assignment as the Deputy Chief of Staff for Intelligence, G2, Headquarters, Department of the Army (HQDA), in 1995.

LTG Menoher retired in 1997 after more than 35 years of active duty service. LTG Menoher's awards and decorations include the Distinguished Service Medal (1 Oak Leaf Cluster), Legion of Merit (2 Oak Leaf Clusters), the Bronze Star Medal (1 Oak Leaf Cluster), the Meritorious Service Medal (3 Oak Leaf Clusters), the Joint Service Commendation Medal, the Army Commendation Medal, the Army Achievement Medal, and the Expert Infantryman Badge.

After he retired, General Menoher received Life Time Achievement awards from the Association of Old Crows and the National Geospatial Intelligence Foundation. He also received an Honorary PhD from the Joint Intelligence University.

LTG Menoher was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1998.

MG Menoher participates in the ground breaking ceremony for the new facilities that would become Prosser Village on Fort Huachuca in 1991. The project was due to consolidation of the MI training that resulted from the 1988 Base Realignment and Closure Act.

MG Menoher uses the Basic Manual Morse Trainer while commanding the US Army Intelligence Center and School.
