

Always Out Front

by Brigadier General Anthony R. Hale

Commanding General

U.S. Army Intelligence Center of Excellence

Assumed Command on 11 August 2020

Taking command of the U.S. Army Intelligence Center of Excellence is the privilege of a lifetime, and joining the dedicated professionals currently shaping our future is an honor. My 30 years of service have focused on operationalizing intelligence for the warfighter, and I've conducted that effort at every echelon across U.S. Army Forces Command, U.S. Special Operations Command, and U.S. Army Intelligence and Security Command. Now at the U.S. Army Training and Doctrine Command, I see countless opportunities to directly influence the warfighter and our Army in a way that is inaccessible to most within Army Intelligence.

we need. Additionally, I truly appreciate how you carefully protected the health of our Soldiers and civilians during the uncertainty of the coronavirus disease 2019 pandemic. I wish you, Randy, Jack, and Rob nothing but the best as you continue your service to our great Nation.

Our priority continues to be building a stronger Army to keep our Nation safe against emerging peer threats and continued asymmetric threats. Our primary objectives to achieve this end state are to Build Leaders and Drive Change while continuing to inform our Soldiers, our Nation, and LTG Potter, thank you for your tireless dedication to the Military Intelligence Corps and Fort Huachuca. The strength of our corps is a direct reflection of your leadership and of your passionate drive for the modernization our adversaries of our abilities and prowess. I'm excited to see our Soldiers in training, to support modernization efforts, and to continue to improve our foxhole. Desert-6, signing on. ✨
